

24 June 1955

MEMORANDUM FOR DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF SECURITY:

Reference our conversation, herewith is Mr. Webb's report.

Mr. Tubby is a co-publisher with a man named Loeb of the ADIRONDACK ENTERPRISE, Saranac Lake, New York, an evening newspaper of approximately 6,000 circulation.

There is no record in the appointment book of the Director's having seen Mr. Harr, and no one of that name saw the Director on 21 June or at any other time, according to the records of Mr. Dulles's confidential secretary.

The words, "Mr. Harr", "Richardson Foundation", and "Saranac Lake, New York" rang no bells in Matt Baird's office.

STANLEY J. GREGAN
